

Son-Kul Lake Yurts Inn, 3016 m

The yurt camp is located on the south shore of the Lake Song-Kul, 50 km from the Tolok Pass.

Song-Kul is a mountain alpine lake situated in the Tian-Shan Mountain Range at an altitude of 3016 m. It is the second largest lake in Kyrgyzstan after Issyk-Kul Lake, and the largest fresh water lake in Kyrgyzstan. Its name, meaning "following lake", is popularly considered to refer to this relation. It is popular with wild summer pasture and mountains. Its beauty is greatly praised, but it is rather inaccessible. All routes require all-terrain vehicles. Due to no permanent facilities on the lake, we are happy to accommodate in Yurt Camp, Kyrgyz traditional dwelling to experience nomad's way lifestyle.

Jety-OguzYurt Inn, Issyk-Kul Lake

The Jety-Oguz Gorge Yurt Inn is located about 35 km to the west from the town of Karakol, southern Issyk-Kul Lake at the altitude of 2300 m.

Jety Oguz means the Rock of Seven Bulls from the Kyrgyz language which is located on the Northern slope of the mountain Terskey Ala-Too. A local landmark is the rock “Broken Heart” where the lovers are always photographed. The Gorge passes into the wide Kek-Jaiyk pasture (land of flowers) which is covered with fir tree forests up to the mountain peaks. There are magnificent sub-Alpine and Alpine meadows - pasture (jailoos) – above the forest zone (3000 m). In spring and summer there is a real feast of flowers in the Jety-Oguz Gorge, among these flowers there are the silver starlets of edelweiss, Alpine chamomiles and asters, elecampane (golden root). The rivers the Archa-Tor and the Ailynash, which form the river Jety-Oguz, originate from the northern slopes of the peaks Karakol and Oguz-Bashy.

Kol Suu Yurt Inn, At Bashy – Kol-Suu Lake

Kol Suu Yurt Camp is located about 550 km far from Bishkek in Naryn region close to Chinese Border. The Yurt Camp took its name from the glacial lake Kol Sui situated just 14 km far from the Yurt Camp. Yurt Camp is at the altitude of 3 514 m

Kol Suu is a spectacular glacial lake set in a rocky canyon whose sheer sides drop almost straight down into the lake. It's difficult to get to, but is one of the most beautiful spots in all of Kyrgyzstan. It is located in the southeast of Naryn Oblast, near the Chinese border. It's quickly becoming one of the region's most popular tourist destinations. Lake Kol Suu offers breathtaking views both on the steep climb up to the lake as well as at its shores. The water in the lake Kol Suu is fresh and has a greenish tint. The lake is around 18 km long from the beginning of the valley and can be reached within an hour with the help of a fascinating horse riding trip or steep hike. Kol Suu Lake is an interesting and unexplored place for diving and makes for excellent kayaking!

NOTE! Border Permit is required to reach this area as it is a boundary zone. We can arrange it within 1-2 weeks.
